Senior Volunteer Work Program

Rev: April 2018

PROGRAM:

Volunteering can be an incredibly rewarding experience – that’s why so many people do it. It’s a great way to help others, share your life experiences and wisdom – plus you can always learn something new. As part of America’s Retired and Senior Volunteer Programs (RSVP) the City of Newport established a Senior Volunteer Work Program on July 1, 2010 offering its Senior residents, ages 55 and older, an opportunity to perform volunteer work for the municipality as determined by City Administration.

PROGRAM PURPOSE:

There are two volunteer programs offered to Senior Newport residents, (1) City-wide voluntarism for any Newport resident age 55 or older and, (2) City Hall Greeter for qualified Newport residents ages 65 years or older who may be entitled to receive a maximum tax reduction of $500.00 on their City of Newport real estate tax bill per fiscal (July – June) year in lieu of hourly compensation while serving in such capacity. If the tax reduction is provided, it will be applied as a tax abatement on one’s real estate tax bill for the year one served in the Program.

4. For Program 2, the maximum tax abatement one may be entitled to is $500.00 per fiscal year which may be provided to qualified individuals who work a total of 67 ½ hours during a 12-month period.
5. For Program 2, the City may take under review a lesser and prorated tax abatement for qualified individuals who work less than 67 ½ total hours in a 12-month duration by multiplying the total number of hours worked in a 12-month duration by the current Rhode Island Minimum wage.
6. A bi-weekly time record will be maintained by the department for all hours worked.

RECRUITMENT

Advertising

Positions are advertised externally based upon need. Human Resources' is responsible for placing all recruitment advertising.

Program Applications may be obtained and submitted to the City's Human Resources Office.

Interview Process

Human Resources or the hiring manager will screen the Senior Volunteer Work Program application prior to scheduling interviews. Initial interviews are generally conducted by either Human Resources or the hiring manager. After the interview process, the department director or hiring Manager will have the responsibility for making a hiring recommendation.

All Program applications will be forwarded to Human Resources for processing and appropriate retention. Human Resources will provide notification to all applicants who are or are not selected for the position.

INITIAL START DATE, ORIENTATION AND SCHEDULING

On the initial start date, the choice candidate will complete required paperwork with the Office of Human Resources and be provided with an orientation by the appropriate department.

A "coverage schedule" will be developed by the department and made available to all individuals selected as participant in the Program. The schedule will consist of the hours to be covered by each individual as well as the days within each week.

Scheduling conflicts must be communicated to the department Manager by all Program participants in advance or before the beginning of the next work week.

Program participants must promptly and directly notify the department Manager, or his/her designee, in the event he/she is unable to satisfy a scheduled coverage date and/or time.

¹ Household income limits as determined annually by HUD Income Limits in April or May.
